

*When you can't walk
And there's chains 'round your soul
The burden's too heavy
And you've run out of road
And you're praying out loud
As you stumble through the rain and snow
I'll walk out and find you,
I'll carry you home.*

She started her career at Holy Rosary Hospital in Miles City, Montana, as a surgical nurse, continued at Swedish Medical Center in Seattle, Washington, and finished her career at Billings Clinic in Billings, Montana.

After retiring, Janie lived on a small farm doing all the things she loved to do. She loved quilting, gardening, watching old movies, having her chickens, kitties, horses, and getting up really, really early in the morning.

Janie had a dazzling smile, a sharp wit, a generous soul, and a devotion to her Lord and Savior. She will be deeply missed.
