MAY 24, 1956 - MARCH 5, 2025

Robert “Willie” Williams, a longtime resident of Miles City, MT, passed away peacefully on March 5, 2025. He was born in Monroe, WI, and spent his childhood in Blanchardville, WI, where he earned the nickname “Willie” among friends and classmates.

Bob’s early years were spent in Blanchardville, where his father worked as a country cheesemaker. Until the age of eight, Bob and his whole family lived in the upstairs quarters of the Sawmill Cheese Factory. In 1985, he moved to Miles City, MT, where he built a life working in seismographing for oil exploration, as well as at Roundup Powder and Evergreen Landscaping.

A history enthusiast and avid reader, Bob had a deep passion for learning. He was a dedicated fan of the Green Bay Packers and the Wisconsin Badgers. He enjoyed rock hounding, spending time with friends, and exploring the natural beauty of Montana. One of his favorite pastimes was gathering with friends along the Yellowstone River in Miles City.

Bob will be remembered for his kind heart, love of history, and adventurous spirit. His family and friends will cherish the memories of his humor, warmth, and enduring friendships.

Bob was preceded in death by his parents, Eugene and Lillian Williams, as well as his brothers, Gene and Eddie Williams.

He is survived by his sister, Julie Muniz (Curt Kohlhoff) of Watertown, WI; his brother, Tim Williams of Colorado Springs, CO; sister-in-law, Kathy Williams; niece, Angie Williams (husband Dan Rose); nephew, Luke Williams (wife Claire); and great-nephew, Jackson, all of Denver, CO.
