Tony Handran
MARCH 23, 1963 - MAY 3, 2025

Anthony Edward “Tony” Handran, passed away on May 3, 2025, at the age of 62, at Holy Rosary Hospital in Miles City, MT. Tony touched many lives and will be remembered by those who knew him.

Born on March 23, 1963, in Wolf Point, MT, Tony Handran was the youngest child of Warren and Ruth (Wolff) Handran. He grew up with a large family that nurtured his special needs. From a young age, Tony showed an interest in music, particularly the Beach Boys, which remained constant throughout his life.

Tony spent much of his youth in Glendive, MT, attending Eastmont and Lincoln School. After Eastmont closed to his age group, he moved to a special EMI group home in Miles City. EMI and the group home were beneficial for Tony and formed his extended family. Mitch, who worked at Tony’s group home, continued his friendship with Tony after retirement, which was significant to Tony.

Tony was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Dan Handran of Coos Bay, OR and Dick Handran of Bozeman, MT.

He is survived by his siblings, Jim and Lois Handran of Gillette, WY, Jerry and Jackie Handran of Glendive, MT, Jack and Dar Handran of Gillette, WY, Bill and Peggy Handran of Glendive, MT, Betty and Dave Fyfe of Wolf Point, MT and Tom and Jeri Handran of Rapid City, SD, along with numerous nephews, nieces, and cousins.

Rest in Peace, Tony Handran. You will be missed and not forgotten.

there is still a light
that shines on me,
